1. ABOUT NPC

National Productivity Council (NPC) is an autonomous organization under the Department of Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. The present expertise available in NPC has a resource base of professionals from fields such as Economics, Industrial Engineering, Human Resource Management, Energy, Environment, IT, Project Monitoring and Evaluation, Research Studies and Baseline Surveys. In addition, services of external professionals and subject matter specialists are also sought on need basis, depending upon the nature and scope of work. NPC extends services from its headquarter at New Delhi and 12 regional offices across the country manned by more than 100 full time professionals. NPC has professionals from diverse fields to provide Consultancy, Capacity Building and Project Monitoring Unit (PMU) services to various organisations including Central Government Ministries and State Governments.

2. PROGRAMME THEME

In today's economic climate, organizations face unprecedented pressure not only to achieve goals and meet expectations of citizens but also to deliver productivity and efficiency. Performance Management is therefore much more than merely telling a person what to do and 'policing' them until it is done. Rather, it is an integral part of the manager and employee's job. The proper measurement of organizational performance, productivity and efficiency is therefore an essential part of the reform for general welfare of all groups in society and nation. Hence, Performance Measurement is a key process in any organization and should assist the management and staff to focus on key issues and business objectives to ensure sustainability.

The program has been designed keeping in view that Government, Public Sector Undertakings and Private Sector organizations must train their officers/managers in Performance Management System so as to develop key skills so that they can meet the expectations of the organization and society.
