NPC has professionals from diverse fields to provide Consultancy, Capacity Building and Project Monitoring Unit (PMU) services to various organizations including Central Government Ministries and State Governments.

2. PROGRAMME THEME

Allowing the decision making to be done at the level of women and girls is the need of the hour and beneficial for collective betterment of society and the world. As Government systems continue to focus largely on rules and procedures, it is very important that the nuances on handling such issues is widely prevalent and the officials trained. Project Implementation simply means carrying out the activities described during Project planning. but when seen in consonance with gender equity it ensures equitable work structuring and allocation for getting the best out of implementation of the projects. This training program shall cover the various aspects available for Gender equity and the nuances of project implementation in light of equitable work structuring.

3. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This training program shall focus on the rules facilitating the fair treatment at all levels such as Men, Women, Boys and Girls. This enables the equitable distribution of resources further enhancing higher income per capita and therefore leads to faster economic growth. Executing a project requires coordination of a wide range of activities, the overseeing of a team, the management of budget, the communication to the public, among other issues. Independent of whether it is a social project to raise the awareness and promote hygiene or it is a construction project for service delivery, there is a certain process that has to be followed. During the training, the sessions shall primarily focus on giving hands-on training to the participants through theoretical sessions, group exercises, workshops etc. to make the participants understand the various aspects of Gender Equity and Project Implementation.
