

Two Day Online Training Programme
on
Advance Course on Good Governance and Transparency through RTI
15th to 16th February 2023

National Productivity Council (NPC) is an autonomous organization under the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Govt. of India. NPC plays a catalytic role in productivity promotion by undertaking consultancy, training, and research assignments in frontier areas of management and technology-oriented disciplines.

National Productivity Council is organizing a Two-Day Online Training Programme on topic “Advance Course on Good Governance and Transparency through RTI” from 15th to 16th February 2023

Aim

The Right to Information Act or simply RTI, is an Act that aims to promote transparency across government institutions in India. The Act came into existence in 2005, after sustained efforts of anti-corruption activists. It is termed as revolutionary because it opens government organisations up for scrutiny. Equipped with knowledge about RTI, a common man can demand any government agency to furnish information.

Organizational transparency is a philosophy of sharing appropriate and non-confidential information freely in an effort to benefit the organization and their stakeholders – employees, customers, investors, government and society. Transparency is often cited as essential to the trust stakeholders place in organizations. In the past two decades, more focus in transparency has taken shape across different domains of organization post surfacing of prominent corporate scandals in both national and international levels.

Objectives

- To improve systems and procedures to eliminate or reduce corruption.
- To promote standardization, automation, leveraging technology, transparency, accountability, control & supervision.
